From the Heart of Doddballapur: Help Restore the Legacy of Azadari

In the humble village of Doddballapur, just 40 km from Bengaluru City & 20 km from Alipur, lies a sacred jewel of South Indian Shi'a heritage, the Adil Shah Quli Ashurkhana, a sanctuary of love, tears & miracles, standing tall for the past 350 years since it was built in 1675.

This blessed Ashurkhana, surrounded by a small but devout Shia population of around 150 households, has long been a beacon for thousands of mourning hearts who gather especially on the 16th & 17th of Moharram from across India. Many come walking with hajats (wishes), broken hearts & heavy prayers and leave with faith renewed, and duas fulfilled.

It is said, whatever is sincerely asked here is never denied.

And right next to it stands a centuries-old Madrasa, echoing the sounds of ilm & ibadat, where generations have learned the path of Ahlulbayt (a.s). Today, Jumma prayers here are led by none other than Moulana Shayar, a deeply respected alim whose soul-shaking sermons ignite the fire of Imaan and move hearts to tears. His words cut through silence like swords of truth, reviving the spirit of Karbala every week. But this house of Allah (swt), this fort of Azadari, is in urgent need of your help.

This spiritually charged & miraculous place, filled with the names of the Masoomeen (a.s), is currently undergoing major renovation, including marble tiling and structural revival. However, due to limited resources & ongoing needs, much work remains incomplete.

This is not just a renovation, it is a revival of history, a restoration of Azadari, and a renewal of faith.

♥ This is an urgent call to all lovers of Ahlulbayt (a.s):

Let your donation become your eternal sadaqa jariya. Let your family's name be tied to a miracle. Let your niyaz, your prayers, your sacrifices be part of this divine legacy.

Ya Allah, make us among those who revive the path of Imam Hussain (a.s), with our hearts, our tears, and our hands.

Let this not be just another message you scroll past. Let your heart respond. Let your hands give. And let your soul be connected to the land of miracles, Doddballapur.
